WHO WE ARE

Range Meetings and Conferences is a premier event planning and conference management company based in Amman, Jordan. Established in 2019, we have built a strong reputation for delivering seamless, high-quality event experiences across the country. With our dedicated and well-trained team, we ensure that every event is executed with precision, professionalism, and cutting-edge technology.

Our expertise spans corporate events, business summits, NGO conferences, and large-scale meetings. We collaborate with top-tier service providers, hotels, and venues, ensuring our clients receive exceptional event solutions tailored to their unique needs.

As a trusted name in the industry, Range Meetings and Conferences is committed to setting new standards in event management through innovation, strategic planning, and outstanding customer service.

OUR MISSION

With years of experience managing corporate conferences, governmental events, and NGO summits, Range Meetings and Conferences is dedicated to elevating event experiences through strategic planning and flawless execution.

We act as a long-term partner, understanding our clients' objectives, working closely with their teams, and leveraging historical data and industry insights to ensure each event is impactful and successful.

By integrating the latest technologies, such as advanced registration systems, audience engagement tools, and real-time event tracking we optimize event management for maximum efficiency and effectiveness.

Our goal is to create unforgettable event experiences that leave a lasting impact on attendees while streamlining the planning process for our clients.
